Sterling, David K.

“ . . . We, the children gone by, we have laughed, dreamed, smiled, loved then somehow lost and now we find ourselves no longer the children we once were but not yet the men we shall be, realizing that lollipops and bicycle scraped elbows have slowly faded and merely become an integral part of the mirage we call memories, weeping for somewhere along the way we have lost yesterday and are not quite sure of where to find tomorrow.

“We cry, laugh and silently watch something pass and call it ours, carrying with it everyone we knew and those we didn’t, weeping for those we could have known, crying for those we should have loved. Their dreams, hopes and that God-given fragment of everything they can honestly call their, mold a word and visualize eternity in a sand pebble which with the rising tide will depart and never be seen again.

“We look around us with open eyes and with a conscious stirring comprehend a world of falling stars and fallen dreams and rain-covered power lines.

“We look ahead yet never forgetting where we have been, moving forward to that something on the other side of the wing of the unseen gull.”

-1970 VISTA

"You cannot teach a man anything; you can only help him to find it within himself.
